Episcopal Holy Week
Services Scheduled

Holy Week services will continue at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., with Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday services scheduled by the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector.

Today's services commemorating Maundy Thursday begin at 6:30 a.m. with Holy Communion. The sacrament will be repeated at 11 a.m. Acolytes will attend the 6:30 a.m. service today as a body.

Services will continue this evening at 7 with a demonstration of the vestments and altar furnishings, relating colors and use to the church season and type of service. This will be the second year that the Rev. Percy has held this instructional service on Maundy Thursday.

GOOD FRIDAY services begin at 6:30 a.m. with the sacrament of Holy Communion to be attended by Sunday School leaders and teachers and leaders of the Girls Friendly Society attending in a group.

The annual three-hour "Watch by the Cross" services will be held from noon until 3 p.m. with the Rev. Mr. Percy speaking on the "Seven Last Words." Persons may attend for any part or all of the three-hour service, and may come or leave during the singing of hymns between each of the seven scheduled lectures on the Crucifixion.

Adult Choir
Sings at Two Rites Today

Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita will have two Easter Services Sunday — at 8:30 and 10:50 a.m. The Adult Choir will sing at both services.

The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will speak at these services on the subject, "Destroy Doubts."

"One thing Jesus did during his earthly ministry, He gave purpose to life. Everywhere He went those who listened proclaimed, 'He spoke as one having authority and not as one of the scribes.' He dispelled doubt and gave men a reason to live. It was this same Jesus who rose from the dead. Easter is a time to remember this risen Christ," Pastor Wells will state.

AT THE 6:30 evening service the Adult Choir will bring its annual Easter music. This year's Cantata will be John Peterson's "No Greater Love." The director will be Edwin T. Isbell, minister of music.

A new educational secretary has been employed by the church. She is Miss Nancy Bridges from Tulsa, Okla. Miss Bridges will serve as secretary and will also direct the youth work in the church. She will begin work about May 1. She replaces Miss Sue Snider who is now serving as a foreign missionary.

Communion has been scheduled for 7 a.m. and Choral Eucharist for 9 and 11 a.m. to complete the celebration of Easter at the church.
